2. Click on the 'Course' tap.

The screenshot shows a web interface for the CAU Online Education Program. At the top, there is a navigation bar with four tabs: 'Guide' (blue), 'FAQ' (light gray), 'Course' (light gray and highlighted with a red border), and 'Status' (light gray). Below the navigation bar, the main heading reads 'Welcome to CAU Online Education Program for Gender Equality and Human Rights!'. The content area contains a paragraph about the university's commitment to gender equality and human rights education. It then lists two categories: 'Faculty and staff members' and 'Students', each with a paragraph describing the required preventive education. At the bottom, there is a list of two legal references.

Welcome to CAU Online Education Program for Gender Equality and Human Rights!

CHUNG-ANG University offers Gender Equality and Human Rights Education to raise our members' awareness in order to improve equal relationships and a safer sexual culture on campus.

Faculty and staff members

All members of CAU are required by law* to take preventive education about sexual harassment, prostitution, sexual violence, and domestic violence, at a minimum of once a year for an hour each (Total 4 hours). CAU Center for Human rights provides preventive education programs in English each year.

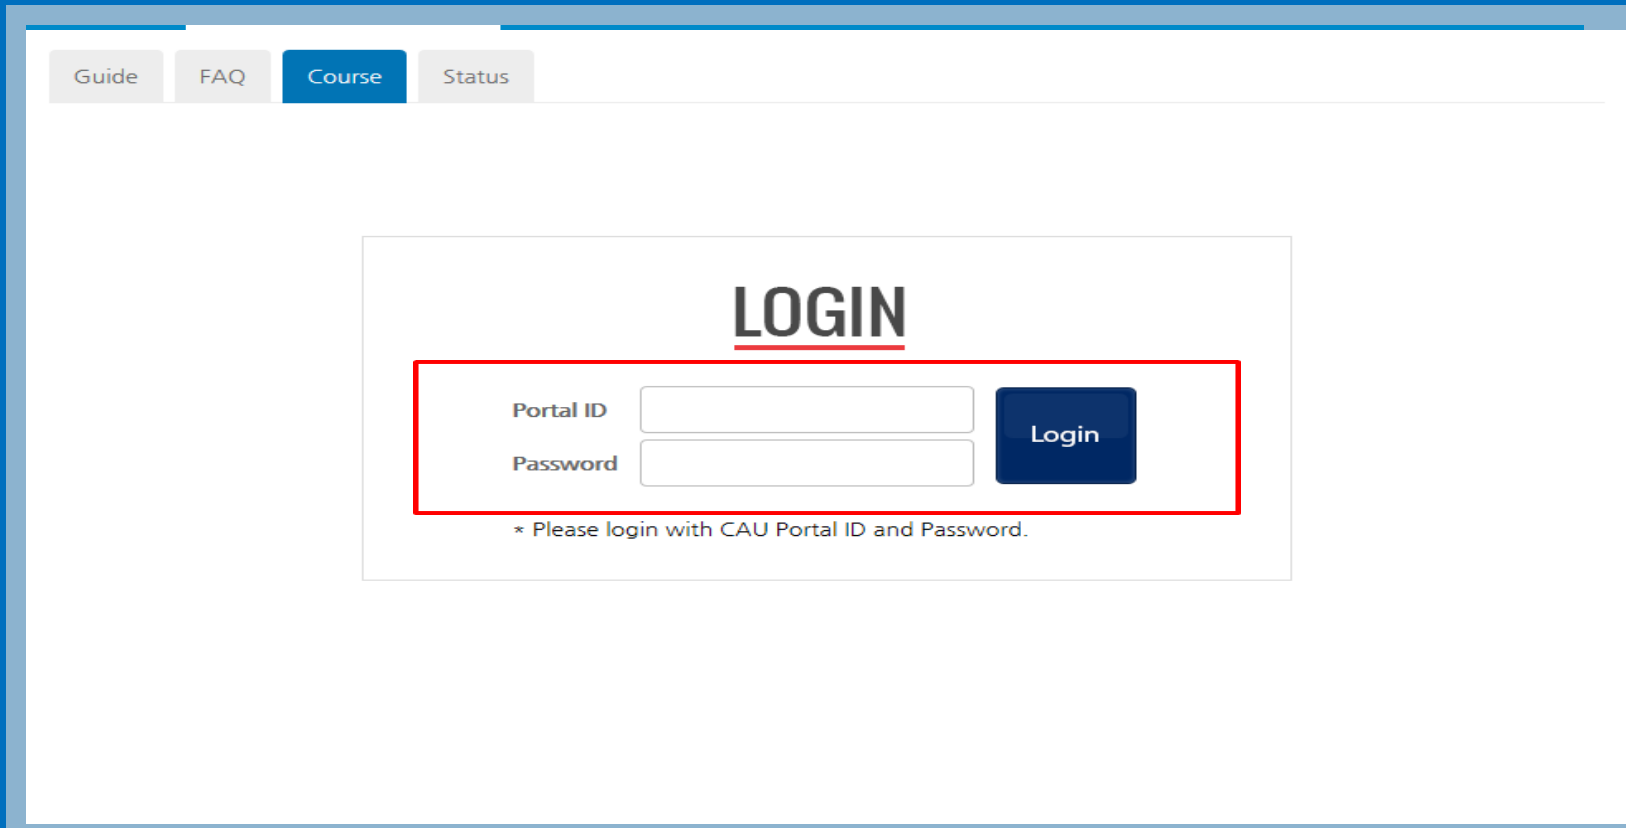

Students

Every CAU student is required by law* to take a preventive education course in sexual violence and domestic violence every year (Total 2 hours).

The CAU Center for Human Rights provides preventive education programs in English each year in both online programs and offline special lectures, so you can take the course through online or offline lectures following your preference.

- 1) Article 31 of the FRAMEWORK ACT ON GENDER EQUALITY
- 2) Article 5 of the ACT ON THE PREVENTION OF COMMERCIAL SEX ACTS AND PROTECTION, ETC. OF VICTIMS

3. Log in with your CAU Portal ID

The screenshot shows a web interface with a navigation bar at the top containing four tabs: 'Guide', 'FAQ', 'Course', and 'Status'. The 'Course' tab is currently selected and highlighted in blue. Below the navigation bar, the main content area features a large, centered box with the word 'LOGIN' in bold, black, uppercase letters. Underneath 'LOGIN', there is a red rectangular border enclosing the login form. Inside this border, there are two input fields: the first is labeled 'Portal ID' and the second is labeled 'Password'. To the right of these input fields is a dark blue button with the word 'Login' in white text. Below the input fields and button, there is a small asterisk followed by the text '* Please login with CAU Portal ID and Password.'
